

USTMAAA 23rd Grand Reunion and Medical Convention
Celebrating the Silver Anniversary of the USTMAAA Foundation
NOMINEES FOR OUTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARDS

DR. ANANIAS C. DIOKNO
NOMINEE FOR MOST OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Class 1965

Professor of Urology, Oakland University William Beaumont
School of Medicine

Retired Executive Vice President & Chief Medical Officer
Beaumont Health System

- Internship at Clark Air Force Base in Angeles City, one of only 12 selected, urologic residency and Babcock Fellowship at the University of Michigan (UM). Urology faculty member at UM from 1971-84 and was named Full Professor in 1982. Voted the Kaiser-Permanente Awardee for Excellence in Teaching by the UM medical students and the Silver Cystoscope awardee by the urology residents.
- Elected president of the following Societies: Michigan Urological, the Philippine American Urological, the American Urological Association (AUA) North Central Section, the Reed M. Nesbit Alumni, the Geriatric urologic and the UST Medicine US class 65.
- Appointed editor in chief of the International Urology and Nephrology (urology section) by Springer.
- Co-chaired the first ever United States AHCPR Guidelines for Urinary incontinence (UI) in Adults in 1992.
- Appointed Chairman of the Department of Urology at William Beaumont Hospital in Michigan (7/1/84 to 6/30/07) & the first Ministrelli Distinguished Chair in Urology. During his 23-year tenure as Chair, Beaumont's Department of Urology rose through the ranks from being unranked by the US News & World Report to being consistently in the top 50 in the country.
- Published 3 books & over 250 journal articles & book chapters including publications in New England Journal of Medicine.
- Visiting Professor at many national and international forum.
- Received numerous awards for his scientific exhibits and the coveted NIH MERIT Award.
- Conducted 19 NIH funded projects continuously since 1984 (currently a $3.8 million NIH funded multi-center research on geriatric UI).
- Selected as NAFC Urologist of the year, the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Society of Urodynamics & Female Urology, the AUA Presidential Citation Award, the AUA Victor Politano Award, the Outstanding Alumni Award in health-medical by the USTAA, the AUA North Central Section Honored Member, by the Beaumont Health System for the "Triple Threat award and by the USTMAA Thomas Award for Leadership in Public Health & Health Related issues.
- With his retirement as Beaumont CMO in 2013, he was honored by naming the Beaumont Royal Oak medical library "The AC Diokno Library", named a street at Beaumont Grosse Pointe "Diokno Drive" and renamed a prestigious international essay contest "Diokno-Lapides Annual International Essay contest in Neuro-urology and Urodynamics".