

Most Outstanding Alumnus for Service to the Alma Mater

MA. CORAZON ZAIDA NOBLEJAS-GAMILLA, MD Class 1973

Zaida Noblejas-Gamilla was a graduate of UST Faculty of Medicine and Surgery Class 1973. After finishing residency in UST Hospital (1978), she was immediately offered a post to teach in the Faculty of Medicine and Surgery, Department of OB-GYN. This started her service to UST from 1978 till the present. She served in the Faculty of Medicine and Surgery as Instructor in 1978 and rose to become a professor II until 2016.

CURRENT: Active Consultant, Trainor in MIS, USTH
Head, Committee on Indigency Fund, Department of OBGYN, USTH
Member, Hospital Ethics Committee, USTH
Member, Hospital Blood Transfusion Committee, USTH
Head, Project Evaluation Committee, Philippine OBGYN Society
Member, Council of Advisers, POGS and PAP
Head, Finance Committee of POGS
Chair, Specialty Board of Philippine Society for Gynecologic Endoscopy
Secretary and Treasurer, Asia Pacific Menopause Federation

SERVICE TO UST FACULTY OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY

- Served as Supervisor in Obstetrics Didactic, 1998-2004
- CHAIRMAN, 2006-2014
- Authored chapters in the Association of Philippine Medical School's "Textbook of Obstetrics"
- Associate Editor for the Textbook of Obstetrics used in all medical schools till its last edition in the early 20s
- Collaborated with the Department of Medicine to be co-editor in the Clinical Textbook of Medicine with the Editor Dr. Melvin Marcial in 2015
- PRESIDENT, UST Faculty Association, 1985-2000

SERVICE TO UST HOSPITAL

- Active Consultant and Trainor for Residents, 1978-present
- CHAIRMAN, Department of OB-GYN, 2005-2020
- Head, Section of Minimally Invasive Surgery, 2011-2020
- Member, Hospital Ethics Committee, 2001-present
- Member, Hospital Blood Transfusion Committee, 1985-1987, 2021- present
- PRESIDENT, USTH Medical Staff Association, 1991-1996
- Represented USTH and USTFMS in Subspecialty Societies: Philippine Obstetrical and Gynecological Society (POGS), Perinatal Association of the Philippines (PAP), Philippine Society for Climacteric Medicine (PSCM), Philippine Society for Gynecologic Endoscopy (PSGE)
- PRESIDENT of the following Subspecialty Societies: POGS (2008), PAP (2004), PSCM (2013-2014), PSGE (2011-2012), Asia-Pacific Menopause Federation (Association of 12 Asian Countries, 2017-2019)
- AUTHOR, POGS, Clinical Practice Guidelines, Terms and Terminologies in Obstetrics, OB and GYN Emergencies
- LECTURER, since 1998 till present in POGS, PSCM, PSGE and Asia Pacific Menopause Federation and Asia Oceania Obstetrics and Gynecology, NIH (Singapore)
- Editor, Ethics in Gynecologic Endoscopy, PSGE, 2015
- Co-Author on Primer in Patient Blood Management, POGS publication to be released in November 2023
- Collaborative research with UST as site investigator on Patient Blood Management (2023)
- Co-Author on Consensus on Anemia Status in Asia, International Journal in Obstetrics and Gynecology, Wiley Publication (2023)

NATIONAL AWARDS

- Balmoro Roxas Award for Academic Excellence, POGS, 2015
- Dr. Jose P. Rizal Award for Outstanding Clinical Practice, PMA, 2022