

CECILIA B. VALLEJO, MD'72 Interns
Most Outstanding Sapphire Jubilarian of the Year

Pathology
Cranford, New Jersey

USTMAAA President 2015-2016

- Graduated from UST Faculty of Medicine and Surgery April 15,1972 (Benemeritus, Oral Revalida Examination)
- Extern in Medicine, Pediatrics, Surgery at Ospital ng Maynila (July 1972- May,1974)
- Rotating Internship, Elizabeth General Medical Center, Elizabeth,New Jersey (Dec. 1974-June,1976)
- Pathology Residency, St. Elizabeth Medical Center (Elizabeth,NJ) and Veterans Administration Medical Center (July1976-June,1980)
- State Medical Licenses (Pennsylvania and New Jersey)
- Diplomate, American Board of Pathology
- Associate Pathologist, Histology Manager, Roche Biomedical Laboratories, Raritan,NJ (October, 1980- Dec., 1994)
- Laboratory Director licensed by Health Laboratories, State of New York
- Assistant Clinical Professor, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor School of Health Related Professions, legacy University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, presently Rutgers University (March 1995 to present)
- Served as Site Visitor for the American Society of Cytopathology (Cytotechnology Programs Review Committee) 2001,2002,2004
- Served as CME speaker for USTMAAA (1997,2007,2012)
- Served as President of Royal Pontifical UST Medical Alumni Association in the State of New York (2008)
- Nominated as Educator of the Year by the American Society of Cytopathology (March,2016)
- Participated in Poster Sessions of the European Congress of Cytology in Athens, Greece (2004), Lisbon,Portugal (2009), Cavtat, Croatia (2012), Milan Italy (2015 )and Liverpool England (2016)
- Third Vice President,, South Ozone Park Medical Lions Club, District K-20 (Lions Club International of New York and Bermuda) since 2014
- President, UST Medical Alumni Association in America (regular attendance at most USTMAAA, Conventions since 1997, outstanding alumna in 1997 grand reunion at Marriott Hotel, New York)
- Vice-President, South Ozone Park Medical Lions Club, District K-20 (Lions Club International of New York and Bermuda) 2016
- Coordinated members of class 1972 since 1997 and encouraged participation with USTMAAAmerica, and collected monetary donations for USTMAAA