

ZENAIDA YOUNG-BHATIA, MD'72
Most Outstanding Alumna of the Year

Obstetrics and Gynecology
New York, NY
Chairperson, USTMAAA Jubilarian Committee

- Class 1972 Clerks
- Graduated cum laude, Meitissiumus
- Trained at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center in the Specialty of Obstetrics and Gynecology
- Fellow of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology
- Clinical Instructor, Albert Einstein College of Medicine
- Attending Physician at North Central Bronx and Montefiore Hospital and Westchester County
- President, organizer and prime mover of Class 72 Clerks USA with close links to classmates in the Philippines.
- Attends medical missions to the Philippines yearly, mostly with USTMAAA
- Gawad Kalinga advocate and avid supporter
- She and her family have contributed generously to the medical mission and disaster relief programs of the USTMAAA, both personally and by campaigning to their classmates, families and friends.
- Principal sponsor of the Breast Cancer Prevention Clinic raising $ 50,000 for the USTMAAA Foundation Endowment Fund for screening breast cancer in the Outpatient Department of the UST Hospital Clinical Division.
- Campaigned vigorously for support of the Thomasian Alumnice Center resulting in classmates and friends donating and sponsoring rooms in the TAC.
- Voted unanimously by her classmates as the Most Outstanding Ruby Jubilarian of the Year in 2012.
- Board member and officer of the USTMAAA currently the President-elect
- Board member and officer of the USTMAAA Foundation currently acting as the Treasurer
- Acted as member, and now chairman of the Jubilarian Committee that is assigned the difficult task of coordinating all the jubilarian activities during the Grand Reunion and National Convention.
- Recipient of the USTMAAA Most Outstanding Alumna for Service to Alma Mater in 2015